Course Description:

Examines dance pedagogy, focusing on principles needed for teaching sound technique. Students learn skills, methods, and instructional procedures for classroom. Emphasizes curriculum development, proper course sequencing, implementation of teaching strategies, and classroom management techniques. Students study teaching methods appropriate for K-12, gifted and talented, and special-needs students. Intensive practice in implementing these skills includes lab, field-teaching experiences.

Nature of Course Delivery

This course will be taught through lecture, discussion, directed observations and field experience.

Student Outcomes:

- Become acquainted with the development and current status of dance in public and private educational settings.
- Acquire an expanded knowledge of dance teaching methods both in practice and in the literature of the field.
- Develop an awareness of good teaching practices for teaching dance in studios and in K-12 curriculum.
- Become familiar with professional organizations and national and state standards for the teaching of dance (Virginia's SOL in dance and the NASD).
- Develop a teaching portfolio demonstrating evidence of knowledge and skills and ability to evaluate and reflect on their teaching practices.
